DISCOVER DIVINE MAJESTY WITH

Kailash Mansarovar

On sharing basis

The Kailash Yatra is a revered pilgrimage esteemed in South Asia. Renowned as one of the most challenging pilgrimage trails globally, the path to Kailash Mansarovar is characterized by its harsh conditions and high altitudes. However, our helicopter yatra offers a swift and comfortable alternative, making this sacred expedition accessible to all. We'll then fly from Nepalgunj and picturesque villages huddled in the Himalayas before reaching the sacred land of Tibet.

ITERNITY DETAILS

Day 1: Arrival in Nepalgunj

Meet at Hotel in Hotel Diamond Palace Nepalgunj.

Address: Hotel Diamond Palace, Bageshwori Tole, Surkhet Road, Nepalgunj
(Tel: +977 81-530835/530351/530231)

Nepalgunj, a bustling town in southwestern Nepal, serves as the gateway to the journey. Take some time to relax and adjust to the higher altitude (around 150 meters).

After dinner our guide will brief you about the entire "Yatra".

Day 2: Flight to Simikot and Acclimatization

After breakfast, transfer to Nepalgunj Airport for a short flight to Simikot, a remote town nestled in the Himalayas (around 2,910 meters Northwest).

Upon arrival in Simikot, you will be transferred to "Bijaya Hotel".

Simikot is a crucial stop for acclimatization to the high altitude before venturing further. Spend the day exploring the local market or simply relaxing to prepare your body for the challenges ahead.

Day 3: Helicopter Transfer to Hilsa (boarder) and drive to Taklakot (Tibet)

Set off on a scenic helicopter ride from Simikot to Hilsa, a small town in Nepal-Tibet border. (around 3,200 meters).

After landing in Hilsa, guides will help to complete immigration formalities and obtain any necessary permits. You will then be transferred to "Himalayan Hotel" in Taklakot.

Taklakot, a frontier town at an altitude of around 3,800 meters, serves as the base for exploring the sacred sites.

Day 4: Spiritual Significance and Exploration

This day is dedicated to experiencing the profound spiritual significance of the Kailash Mansarovar region.

In the morning, drive to the sacred Lake Mansarovar (around 4,580 meters) for a self holy puja (prayer ceremony) and a purifying bath in the icy waters.

Explore the Mansarovar Parikrama, a 72-kilometer circumambulation of the lake, considered a sacred ritual.

Drive to Darchen (around 4,650 meters) and Proceed to Yamadwar (meaning "Gate of Death") for another puja and a glimpse of the majestic Mount Kailash (around 6,714 meters).

Finally, return to Taklakot for the night.

Day 5: Return Journey to Simikot

After breakfast, depart from Taklakot and drive back to Hilsa.

Board a helicopter flight from Hilsa to Simikot, retracing your aerial path from Day 3.

Check in to "Bijaya Hotel" in Simikot for a night's rest.

Day 6: Departure from Simikot to Nepalgunj

On the final day, enjoy a leisurely breakfast at the hotel.

Transfer to Simikot Airport for your flight back to Nepalgunj.

Upon arrival in Nepalgunj, your Kailash Mansarovar Yatra concludes.
(You can either connect to onward flights back home or spend some additional time exploring the town)
